We do not know what is happening down in barren county. The Glasgow Times has not reached this office for six weeks.

Farmers who are in need of money to operate their lands will soon be able to get assistance from the Louisville Federal Land Bank. It is announced that the institution will receive soon an allotment of $5,000,000 for distribution to farmers in Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio.

We have heard of no one up to the present who will be a candidate to represent Adair and Taylor in the next Legislature. The candidate, whoever he may be, should be a gentleman of character, one who carries respect, and who will remain upon the job if sent to Frankfort. This is not the year for peanut politicians.

At the District Conference of the Danville Southern Methodist Church, held last week, the license of Curt Jett to preach was revoked. Jett played the church racket, got out of the penitentiary for murder, and has married twice since he was given his freedom, twice divorced, and is now silenced from attempting to save souls. Curt is a murderous criminal, and that is all there is to him.

Hon. Thomas H. Paynter, who served in both branches of Congress, a member of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, and filled some other positions when quite a young man, died at his home in Frankfort last Tuesday, aged 69. The cause of his death was due to an operation performed some time ago. As a public man he had but little to say, and was not widely known as a Kentucky politician.

Alleging cruelty and non support, Mrs. Caleb M. Powers, has sued her husband for a divorce. They live in Washington, D. C., and the home in which they have been residing belongs to Mrs. Powers. Caleb is a native of Knox county, Ky., and was charged with dishonorable acts a long time before he was arrested and convicted for being implicated in the murder of Wm. Goebel.

Premier Dato of Spain, was assassinated in Madrid, last Tuesday night while returning from the Chamber in an automobile. A number of shots were fired. He was an enemy of the working class, opposed to all reforms, had no respect for the United States—an all round bad man. He has doubtless gone to a warmer climate and the world refuses to mourn. When such men are removed from action Henry Waterson's expression is fitting. "All honor to the Devil, hurrah for hell."

No gamer statesman ever retired from office than J. C. W. Beckham. He was for prohibition and proclaimed his principles from the rostrum. He was against woman's suffrage, and so voted in the Senate. He is not a man who would surrender his convictions for office. His firm stand for prohibition probably was the cause of his defeat last November. Undismayed, he will open a law office and will command as much practice as any lawyer in the State. It is ability that counts and Beckham has it to let.

The papers made a great deal of noise over the marriage of Winston Phillips, aged 20, to Mrs. Ella K. Gaines, who is in her 43rd year, both of Louisville. The bride has four daughters by her first husband. Phillips was young and tender, and his mind was made up before his marriage to go to California and start a business. It was hard for him to leave the parental home, severing his connection with his mother, and after weighing the situation he doubtless concluded that he would marry Mrs. Gaines and take her with him to the Golden Gate and by so doing he would not only have a wife but a mother also; that he would need the advice and of one who had nurtured and reared children, caused him to take a mature woman instead of an inexperienced girl!

By reference to our announcement column it will be seen that Mr. W. A. Coffey is a candidate for re-election to the office of County Attorney, subject to the action of the Republican party, expressed at the August primary. Mr. Coffey is one of the best known men in Adair. He has been prominent in the affairs of his party since he reached his majority, and his influence has been felt in every election. He is a very courteous gentleman, possessing very polished manners, and is a very entertaining conversationalist, a lawyer of ability. A man, who has a good word for every one he meets, is that character of a good citizen who has many warm personal friends. He was elected County Attorney nearly four years ago, making a very efficient and faithful officer, watching closely the interest of Adair county, having no "pets," but doing his duty as an official. Mr. Coffey, with four years experience, is better qualified now for the position than he was four years ago. He submits his candidacy, feeling sure that his party will endorse him, as it is the universal custom to endorse a candidate, who has performed his duty, for the second term. The partiality shown him in the past is gratefully appreciated, and he promises that should he be nominated and elected for the second term, that he will continue to be faithful to the trust placed in his charge. The primary is about five months in the future, and the intervening time before that event is pulled off, Mr. Coffey will avail himself of opportunities to see his friends over the county, personally presenting his claims. In the meantime he asks those who are for him to be diligent in his interest.

FROM ENZABETHTOWN NEWS.

An exchange asks, if there is no hell where has business gone? We guess it has gone up.

We are not disappointed in Harding's inaugural address because we did not expect much.

The inauguration was unusual in one respect—the retiring President received more attention than the incoming President.

Congressional electioneering with Garden seed would be more successful if the dear people had any confidence in the seed.

An earthquake shock was felt in Washington the day after the inauguration. The political shake-up is due later.

Judge Ike Thurman holds that it is not unlawful to give a man a drink, but the practice is quite obsolete as liquor is too scarce to give away.

We would give this little piece of advice to all our county candidates: You are not going to be
